Ignatius Press, United States, 2000. Paperback. Condition: New. Ignatius Press. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the twelve months before his sudden death, Hans Urs von Balthasar had been writing a series of reflections on the twelve articles of the Apostles Creed. These texts, which are undoubtedly among the last things he wrote, take on the character of a legacy, a spiritual testament. For they amount in their extraordinary compactness and depth to a little summa of his theology. What he had set out in detail in numerous books over five decades, he summarizes here in contemplative plainness and simplicity. All the characteristics that make von Balthasar s work so distinctive and valuable are to be found here: breadth of vision, loveliness of style, and an intuitive-contemporary passion that allows him to pray intellectually and think cordially . In his warm and extensive introduction to the book, Medard Kehl speaks of von Balthasar s unclouded, almost childlike joy in the richness and beauty of the Mystery of the threefold God, which is evidenced in his interpretation of the creed.
