

Dimestore Avenue Blues: A Novella (Paperback)

By MR Pádraig Hanratty

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Jesse believes that the future will be better. One day, he ll make up for all his mistakes and achieve perfection. That belief had sustained him for most of his sixty-five years. It helped him get through the bad times, those days when the brandy failed to drown the sorrow and shame. When sleep unleashed painful memories that refused to fade. He still has some bad days as he lives out his autumn years in Dublin. But his worst days were in New York in 1976. After that city had nearly crushed him, he d fled to Dublin, a broken man. But he was determined to rebuild himself, brick by brick, improving day by day. Back in the 1970s, Jesse was a successful young ad man on Madison Avenue. He d succeeded because he was willing, indeed eager, to do anything to advance his career. He d endure countless dinner parties where cloaks and daggers dangled behind the wine and cheese. He d sleep with anyone who could bring him closer to his goals. And he d punch those who stood in his...
