PAINKILLERS (PAPERBACK)

Orion Publishing Co, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. A mysterious box that he cannot open is all that might save Adam s autistic son as they are plunged into a world of old corruptions and new terrors.In PAINKILLERS, Simon Ings deftly teases out his knotted story that, with its many conventional elements, could have run a risk of overfamiliarity: sinister Oriental Triad gangsters, their even more sinister wives, a speedy Hong Kong with its ruthless Brit yuppies and its nightlife ridden with drugs, strange sex and violence. Shooting back and forth between a glamorous Hong Kong, in 1990, and a straitened London, in 1998, Ings sustains suspense by dropping hints but never telling enough.Adam Wyatt and his wife Eva run a small cafe near Southwark Market. They bicker a lot, Adam drinks and visits to their autistic son Justin tend to go awry. But underneath Adam s drinking are secrets from their previous life in Hong Kong, when he worked for the Independent Commission Against Corruption and got in with some very dubious local society types; one of whom includes Call me Jimmy Yao Sau-Lan, a big nasty man, in a big nasty suit , whose father just happened to kill Eva s grandfather. When Jimmy s widow and sons come calling, Adam knows he s in trouble.
