If you're looking for a book for this Halloween, this is the one you should choose. When they're not spending time with their family, doing chores, or working on homework, Amy and Megan are busy putting their imaginations to work and creating their own adventures while leading the 301 Club. And, of course, investigating. Halloween is fast approaching in the small town of Ten Mile when their friend Maisy's two curious brothers enter the deserted Harwood Mansion and encounter someone who may actually be a ghost. After hearing the boys' tale, Amy and Megan, along with their friends, decide to investigate the sordid history of the house, solve the mystery of the boys' encounter, and possibly find a lost treasure.
