Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From the PREFACE TO THE FOURTH EDITION THIS little volume comprises a selection from the author s studies on philosophical and religious subjects, those studies having - in some cases - been chosen by preference which have been most helpful to himself individually in enabling him, amid the spiritual unrest of the closing nineteenth and opening twentieth century, to regain and hold fast (even it, to a large extent, only in the attitude of hope ) the essentials of the Christian - and even a great part of the Catholic - Faith. Where a writer is to so enormous an extent as the present one, indebted to the thoughts of greater contemporary - or nearly contemporary - minds, it becomes his duty to express this indebtedness specifically so far as he is able. This the writer has endeavoured to do. But it may not be out of place to indicate here that the studies with regard to which he can claim least originality are the two which relate (a) to the Infancy-Stories of our first and third canonical gospels, and (b) to the eschatological teaching of the New Testament. The ground-idea of the last-named study has been derived by the present writer, with deep and especial thankfulness, from a remarkable personality who is best known as initiator of the most daring and one of the most successful sociological experiments recorded in modem history: and the writer s originality is confined to the reconciliation of this ground-idea (which at first sight seems to involve physical miracle on a stupendous scale) with his strictly naturalistic and indeed (in the narrowest sense) physiological theory of spiritual crisis and destinies - a theory which he hopes will...
