We've got to get the Nevada out of here, yelled Christopher to the engine-room operators as bombs dropped around them. How long till we can get underway? Christopher stared out at the raging inferno in front of him. Just a few minutes earlier, the beautiful blue Hawaiian sky had spelled the beginnings of a wonderful day. All of the ships across Pearl Harbor were preparing for Morning Colors, the ceremonial raising of the American flag. As they stood at attention awaiting the ceremony, numerous tiny dark specks appeared in the distant sky. Moments later, hundreds of Japanese planes swarmed around them like bees. The attacking planes dropped bombs and torpedoes and rained gunfire down on them. On the USS Arizona, enemy bullets instantly killed every band member on deck. Explosions rocked the entire ship, causing the conning tower to sink into the ship's hull. Raging fires spewed putrid black smoke into the skies above her. The USS Arizona sunk to the bottom, killing almost every man on board. As she lay in ruins on the bottom of...
