Troubador Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 290 pages. Dimensions: 7.7in. x 5.1in. x 1.1in. What if all brain disorders were treatable No one would lament the passing of dementia or autism, but what if the twisted mind of a sex-offender or murderer could be cured too Or how about a terrorist or maybe a political extremist What if we could all be corrected Its 1966 and RAF pilot Dan Stewart awakes from a coma following an aircraft accident into a world where nothing seems to make sense any more. Not being able to recall the crash might be expected, but what about the rest of his life And whats stopping him from taking his medication Is it brain damage thats causing paranoia about the red pill or is he right to think theres something more sinister going on His horrific injuries dont make any sense either - a post-crash fire caused him to suffer 100 burns. How is it even possible to survive that Are the hallucinations and strange dreams trying to tell him something They are, and hell soon find out what, but not before his doctors sure the shock wont kill him. But then, the CONDITION trilogy will shock the reader with just how easily we will all come to accept the unacceptable. . . This item ships from multiple locations.
