

God Was Thinking? (Paperback)

By Janice Weiss

Xulon Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . I highly recommend this book. Read how God moves his daughter, Janice, from fear to freedom, from rebellion to joy, and from grief to contentment. Rose Marie Miller Author of From Fear To Freedom, Come Back Barbara The Weisses story is one that is similarly played out daily in many places around God's world. Janice's emotional writing is real, uplifting and a compelling read. I highly recommend it. Rob Alexander Author of Professions-als: Men and Women Partnering with the Trinity in Everyday life Janice helps us see the promise of beauty for ashes, hope for despair and joy in the midst of sorrow. She lives it. This book will help many understand the disconnection between the theology in their head and the rebellion in their heart. Janice shows fellow travelers of painful losses that there is a loving God who weeps and through His tears, heals and makes us whole. Clyde Godwin Pastor of Hope Presbyterian Church. Janice Weiss has recently returned to the US after living ten years on the outskirts of London, England. Along with her husband and four children, she was sent out by...
