Fess, United States Senator From Ohio, Before the Union League of Philadelphia, Friday Evening, February 15, 1924 A former President of Antioch College, Honorable Simeon D. Fess, has for a number of years represented his State in Congress. He is now one of the dependable pillars of the Republican Party in the United States Senate. [applause] To us who believe we are a part of the backbone of the great political party to which we all subscribe, it is gratifying in these trying times to realize our party is represented in the Senate by a number of tried and true statesmen who can be depended upon to keep their feet on the ground and to lend powerful support to a great President upon whose capable shoulders the hand of Fate has laid the heavy responsibilities of the Chief Magistrate of the Nation. Of that stalwart group upon whom the best that is in the Republican Party confidently rely, is Senator Fess, the guest of the evening, whom I now have the honor...
