TRADITIONS IN WORLD CINEMA (PAPERBACK)

Rutgers University Press, United States, 2006. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Traditions in World Cinema brings together a colorful and wide ranging collection of world cinematic traditions--national, regional, and global--all of which are in need of introduction, investigation and, in some cases, critical reassessment. The movements described range from well-known traditions such as German expressionism, Italian neorealism, French, British, and Czech new wave, and new Hollywood cinema to those of emerging significance, such as Danish Dogma,...
