

Sin Walks Into the Desert (Paperback)

By Matt Ingwalson

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A sterling achievement, featuring an ultracool protagonist and dotting descriptions of all types of guns. - Kirkus Reviews Four stars - San Francisco Book Review Sin gets a late night call from la Calavera. She s an ex-federal agent living on half a lung in a retirement home near the border. And she says el Viejo is missing. This is el Viejo she s talking about. Diabetes and arthritis may have the old man in a rocking chair now, but in his day he was the baddest of snipers and the bravest of private eyes. He also saved Sin s life, back when the boy was a 12 year old punk hellbent on shooting up the school bus with his daddy s .357. So Sin heads off to find his mentor, only to find a nest of killers with ancient vendettas waiting for him in the desert with the kingsnakes and coyotes.
