Sunbury Press, Inc. Paperback. Condition: New. 322 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.7in. Horror master Thomas Malafarina is back with the first book of his Dead Kill series entitled The Ridge of Death. Enter a post-apocalyptic world where zombies still roam, but are the quarry of bounty hunters who are rewarded by the government for helping with the clean-up. What Others Are Saying: Thomas Malafarina writes with a visual artists eye for detail and design and revels in the same exuberant flourishes for violence and tableaux of flesh as Clive Barker, all the while working the clichs and conventions of the horror genre bravely and unabashedly. Though he has created his own King-like milieu in and around his native Schuylkill County (PA), Malafarina shares Lovecrafts cosmic vision and torment of inner and outer space and he designs philosophically laden set pieces that thoroughly dissect the minutia of man as if he were just another sentient being in a violent and insatiable cosmos (and a clumsy one at that), a doomed soul wracked with mental anguish and ripe for the picking from the evils of the universe, just another chapter in an ancient taxonomy. Toms novels continue to grow in scope and ambition he is a veritable talent to watch (and read)! -- George Andrade Horror News Thomas M. Malafarina is the kind of writer I aspire to be. Like a visionary painter, creates mood in the landscape of dread, strong emotions with characters you care for, and suspense that causes a readers nails to dig deep into their own legs. Stories cut from a cloth of originality that is Thomas M. Malafarina. -- Mark Slade Nightmare Illustrated Magazine Malafarinas vision into a world where zombies are nearly eradicated is fresh and savagely satisfying, making this a must read. -- Keith...
