Pub Date :2012-11 Publisher: Beijing Normal University Press Introduction 2012 U.S. presidential election results announced Democratic candidate Barack Obama won more than 270 electoral votes. defeating Republican candidate Mitt Romney. won the 2012 U.S. presidential general election. the successful re-election. will become the 45th president of the United States. The argument of the book is: Barack Obama recorded in the heart of the anti-colonial ideology of his African father. Starting from a very young until spent the formative years of his personality. Obama will be regarded by the United States as a power of global domination and destruction. He began the U.S. military as a tool of the neo-colonial occupation. He adopted his father's position - the free market is the economic plunder of the Code. Obama began the rich people as an oppressed class. a new colonialism of the United States forces. He began to hate the enterprises that they are the institutional mechanisms of economic control and exploitation. America's strength is how selfish an American consumer of global resources. to how ruthlessly oppress and control the measurement of other people on this planet. Book and other books about Obama. it does not passionately devout praise on Obama. but is not the vulgar denounced Obama. Book from the unique perspective of anti-colonialism to show readers a new image of Obama. and the formation of a theory. In the author's view. only this theory to be able to best reveal exactly what propelled Obama. and interpretation of Obama in the White House did. It is worth noting that the theory from Obama own autobiography and self-description. Read this book to help you understand Obama. so you can expect Obama...
