Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Has the direction changed at all during the course of Active Directory? If so, when did it change and why? Will team members regularly document their Active Directory work? How is the value delivered by Active Directory being measured? How does the Active Directory manager ensure against scope creep? Has the Active Directory work been fairly and/or equitably divided and delegated among team members who are qualified and capable to perform the work? Has everyone contributed? Defining, designing, creating, and implementing a process to solve a business challenge or meet a business objective is the most valuable role. In EVERY company, organization and department. Unless you are talking a one-time, single-use project within a business, there should be a process. Whether that process is managed and implemented by humans, AI, or a combination of the two, it needs to be designed by someone with a complex enough perspective to ask the right questions. Someone capable of asking the right questions and step back and say, What are we really trying to accomplish here? And is there a different way to look at it? For more than twenty years, The Art of Service s Self-Assessments empower people who can do just that - whether their title is marketer, entrepreneur, manager, salesperson, consultant, business process manager, executive assistant, IT Manager, CxO etc. - they are the people who rule the future. They are people who watch the process as it happens, and ask the right questions to make the process work better. This book is for managers, advisors, consultants, specialists, professionals and anyone interested in Active Directory assessment. Featuring 371 new and updated case-based questions, organized into seven core areas of process design, this...
