. This book helps build self-esteem. If a child has mastered the tricky task of tying their shoe laces, they re ready to have fun learning to tie a tie with the rabbit and the fox. This beautifully illustrated story book is based on the age old tale of a very hungry fox chasing a frightened little rabbit through the forest in pursuit of dinner! Around a tree, under a bush and over a log they go, until the rabbit just barely escapes the fox s snapping jaws, into the safety of his cozy burrow. Boys love action and adventure and will enjoy following along with the movements of the chase while learning the steps of tying a necktie. By the time the rabbit is safely tucked away, even the very youngest child can proudly point to their neatly knotted tie saying, Look what I ve done! There s no greater accomplishment for a young one than conquering feats requiring manual dexterity. Who knows. the little guy might even use his newly acquired skill to help out an older gent! How s that for...
